Mid-Monthly Update – May 2025

Dear Parents/Carers,

We are now halfway through the Summer 1 Term, and it has been a joy to see our pupils embracing every opportunity with enthusiasm and positivity. Our Year 6 pupils have shown incredible resilience and maturity as they've tackled their Key Stage Two Assessments—we are so proud of their determination and hard work. To celebrate, they will enjoy a well-deserved trip to Play Factore at the end of the week!

The past few weeks have been packed with exciting learning experiences, including:

- Pools 2 Schools for Years 2–6, giving pupils the chance to develop vital water safety and swimming skills
- Year 1's trip to Bring Yer Wellies, where pupils enjoyed hands-on outdoor learning
- Year 2's visit to Clitheroe Castle, which brought their history learning to life

As we look ahead to the Summer 2 Term, we're beginning to prepare for a range of exciting events, including Sports Days, Transition Days, our Summer Fair, and plenty of time enjoying the outdoors as the weather improves.

Please find below a list of key dates for the Summer Term. Further information for some events will be shared in due course.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Luke Devine

NON-UNIFORM DAY!

Friday 23rd May

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Instead of the usual £1 donation for wearing non-uniform, please bring in a chocolate bar, or a some kind of chocolate treat instead.

These will go towards the Chocolate Tombola stall at the Summer Fair and will help raise money for the next step of the Garden Renovation.

THANK YOU!
