

Rev Richard Marshall

- I've been the vicar of The Benefice of the Redeemer (St Bartholomew's, Ewood and Church of The Saviour, Blackburn) since 2004 and live close to the school.
- We have two children currently at the school.
- I'm a qualified teacher (Secondary) and taught for eight years before training as a vicar.
- I regularly go into school to take assemblies on a Friday morning.
- I am committed to the provision of a Christian education for anyone who wants their children to grow up knowing God and to live their life to the full.
