

Mrs Lisa Cowell

- I attend St. Bartholomew's Church regularly and take an active interest in community issues that impact on the areas within which I live and work.
- I've been a teacher for twenty years and currently work as a Deputy Headteacher in a Preston Secondary school so teaching and learning is in my blood.
- I'm committed to aiding the Redeemer Church of England Primary School achieve its goals.
- I live with my husband and we have a daughter at University.
- I'm originally from Newcastle but have lived in Lancashire for nearly thirty years and I love it here.
